Long Answer Questions - Expected Responses

1. Explain the concept of gender stereotypes and their impact on individuals and society, drawing examples from the provided text.

Expected Answer: Gender stereotypes limit opportunities for women and men by promoting preconceived notions about roles and capabilities.

2. Discuss the role of education in shaping gender stereotypes. How can educational systems promote gender equality?

Expected Answer: Education plays a critical role in perpetuating or challenging gender stereotypes. Curricula, textbooks, and teacher training must be reviewed to promote inclusivity.

3. Analyze the underrepresentation of women in STEM fields, considering societal factors and gender stereotypes as discussed in the article.

Expected Answer: The text highlights the underrepresentation of women in STEM fields. This disparity is attributed to societal biases and gender stereotypes that discourage girls from pursuing these careers.

4. Compare and contrast how Text 1 and Text 2 address the issue of gender stereotypes. Discuss the different approaches each uses and its effectiveness.

Expected Answer: The film 'Dani' (Text 2) effectively portrays the suppression of female talent and the societal pressures to conform to gender roles. The father's discouragement of his daughter's career aspirations illustrates this.

5. Based on the information presented, what are the effective ways to challenge gender stereotypes and promote equality? Support your answer with examples from the text.

Expected Answer: The solution to overcoming gender stereotypes lies in education.

Governments and educators must actively challenge biases and promote inclusive learning environments.
